Gripmen From the East

ON ARRIVING AT CHICAGO LEARN THE TRUE STATE OF THINGS,

AND FIRMLY REFUSE TO TAKE THE STRIKERS' PLACES.

A Few Cars Started From the Stables Under a Heavy Guard of Police, But They Are Not Interfered With by the Strikers—The West Side Street Car Employees Hold a Secret Session.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—The strikers won "first blood" by peaceable measures Sunday night, by persuading fifteen experienced gripmen brought here from Philadelphia, to join their ranks. Mr. Harrison, one of the seceding gripmen, said to a reporter:

"We were told by Mr. Henderson, one of the company's detectives, that Yerkes had completed his West Side cable, and we were wanted to break it in. I have been in the employ of the Philadelphia company for eight years. All these are from the most experienced hands of the lines there. We were promised free transportation and $2.75. As we neared Chicago we saw by a Chicago paper that a strike was on. That was the first we knew of it. Sixteen of us were in charge of Detective Henderson. We learned all the facts and decided not to work. When we went back at 8 o'clock to our stopping place, the Bartholdi hotel on State street, to get our baggage, Henderson was furious, he pulled a revolver and angrily shouted: 'I've got the stuff and no man leaves this room tonight.' We knocked the revolver aside and crowded past. One gripman still stays with him. The strikers will pay our further expenses here and secure us work or send us home."

It was announced that the North Side Car company would start its cars at 7 a. m. sharp. Long before that hour great crowds began to gather around the "limit" barns, eager to see anything in the way of excitement. Promptly at the hour named, three cars of the "limits" and Lincoln Park line left the "limits" barns. They were manned each by two drivers, a conductor and ten policeman. Surrounding the barns and forcing back the surging group of strikers which filled the opposite side of the street were 150 policemen from Chicago and fifty from Lake View.

At 7:30 six cars were started out on Clark street. These were escorted in the same manner as the others. Hardly had they gone a few blocks when an unknown imported driver broke from the car and took the woods. Another named Albert McCoy, from Philadelphia, followed his fellow driver. When seen afterward he was affected to tears and claimed he did not know that there was a strike and that he would never take the bread out of another man's mouth. Six cars were started from the Sedgewick street barns, under strong police escort, and run safely to Washington street without incident. There was no attempt on the part of the strikers to interfere with the cars.

The executive committee of the West Side street car employees met at 9½ West Randolph street, at 9 o'clock a. m., in secret session. What they intended to do was kept closely secret. Soon after the meeting had assembled a messenger boy ran up with a telegram. This informed the committee, it is said, that the police were being used to clean the horses, and to perform other menial work around the barns, contrary to Mayor Roche's express promises. It was said that a committee would be appointed to wait on the mayor and endeavor to find out way this was so.

It was whispered about that the West Side company employees would strike immediately if non-union men were used on the North Side, and this was the subject under discussion. A delegation from the North Side strikers were admitted at 10 o'clock. The indications are that a strike on the West Side will be ordered immediately.

The executive committee of the West Side car men immediately upon leaving their place of meeting, at noon, all went in a body to the North Side offices to hold an interview with Mr. Yerkes.

Luke Coyne said that one of the things decided upon at the secret session was to endeavor to obtain some sort of concessions from Mr. Yerkes, and that upon his refusal to grant their request they would go back to their places of meeting and order a strike immediately.

At 11:30 o'clock the committee had sent in word to Mr. Yerkes that it wished to see him. Mr. Yerkes refused to treat with the committee, saying he would have no interference from any West Side employees on the affairs of the North Side road. He referred the committee to Manager Parsons, of the West Side road.

The committee told Mr. Yerkes if they did not receive an answer by 4 o'clock a general tie-up would result on the West Side.

Gripmen Awaiting Orders.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—Another lot of eighteen traction gripmen were sent west Sunday. They all stopped off at Pittsburg, where they will be held to await orders. If their services should be needed on the Chicago lines, they will be sent on at once, but if not they will return to this city.

The supply of gripmen sent to Chicago, it is said, has been sufficient to meet the immediate demands, but if a contingency should arise and more men would be needed quickly the men at Pittsburg would be well on their way.

A Historic Building Torn Down.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 9.—Workmen are demolishing the old United States court building on Royal street. This was one of the public buildings turned over by the French at the transfer of Louisiana in 1803, and was occupied as the United States district court house for many years. In this building Judge Dumaine O. Hall sat when he issued the bench warrant for the arrest of Gen. Jackson for contempt of court, in refusing to obey a writ of habeas corpus, and here the victorious general was brought by the United States marshal and fined $1,000 by the judge. The building was small, and not suited for the growing city, and in 1825 President John Quincy Adams ordered its sale at auction. It was bought by the Chevalier Louis D. Aquina.

BARRY'S RESIGNATION

Gives Rise to the Story That He Will Form a Rival Organization.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—Barry's resignation as a member of the general executive board, Knights of Labor, accompanied by his bitter attack on the Powderly administration, has given rise in this city to rumors of a conspiracy to bolt from the Indianapolis general assembly next month for the purpose of forming a rival organization, with Barry as general master workman. Barry's presence in New York, in such close proximity to those aggressive kickers Joseph R. Buchanan and George Murray, presents a basis for these rumors.

It is held that the plan of operation at Indianapolis has been organized and that Barry's tirade is the forerunner of a great volley of charges, scandals and "inside history" to be fired off when the general assembly meets.

Pittsburg Knights Excited.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 9.—Barry's letter created great excitement here. It has loosened the tongues of the leaders of the order, and they are talking with a vim and freedom quite unusual. No action will be taken until the next meeting of the board.

Thorman at Oakview.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—An exceptionally fine afternoon and the presence of both the Democratic National candidates at Oakview brought a large crowd of visitors to the president's country residence Sunday. The secret character of the day precluded anything like a demonstration, but there was an interest on the part of those who made the trip to see the presidential and vice-presidential candidates hobnob with each other. This they did not see, for the president and his guest remained strictly within doors.

But there were those to whom the latch-string was out. Among the early callers was Postmaster General Dickinson, and Secretary Vilas joined him as soon as the morning church services in the city were over. A little later in the day Senator Gorman, Speaker Carlisle, William Dickinson, the district leader of the National committee, Congressman Yoder and other politicians arrived. Mr. Allen W. Thorman spent the day at Oakview also.

One of the Hatfield Gang Arrested.

CATLETTSBURG, Ky., Oct. 9.—Detective Alf. W. Burnett, arrested at Wellston, O., a few days ago, Charles Gillespie, wanted in Pike county for murder and arson. He is charged with setting fire to old man McCoy's house when the Hatfield gang made their raid, destroyed McCoy's property and killed his daughter. There was $100 reward offered for his arrest. County Attorney J. Lee Ferguson and James McCoy came down and paid the reward, and will take Gillespie to Pikeville. Alf. Burnett and his assistants for several days past have used various means to entice James McCoy across the border and arrest him, as the West Virginia authorities have offered $100 reward for his arrest, for the part he took in the Hatfield-McCoy war, but James was too sharp for the detective, and it was not healthy to attempt his arrest here.

Sporting Notes.

It is rumored that Teemer and Gaudaur will challenge Kemp, the Australian sculler, who holds the world's championship.

One of the world's championship games may be played in Cincinnati. Boston wants 25 per cent. of the gate receipts for ground rent.

Antonio Pierre, the wrestler, has put up a $100 forfeit to meet any United States wrestler, Tom Cannon preferred, Grace Roman, for $1,000 a side.

Kilrain has been dispatched to hold himself in readiness to sign articles of agreement to meet the unknown. There is some speculation at Sullivan being the unknown.

Smuggling on the Dakota Border.

WINNEPEG, Man., Oct. 9.—The customs authorities have discovered that for years large consignments of opium from China have been sent to southern Manitoba, smuggled from there into Dakota and from that territory distributed among the states of the Union. It has been discovered also that quantities of timber have been smuggled across the boundary line by Americans. In consequence mounted police have been detailed for special duty along the frontier. They will prevent, if possible, all smuggling.

Suffocated by Foul Air.

NEW PROVIDENCE, Ky., Oct. 9.—Mr. Hardine Rye, a well known farmer living near this place, while engaged in cleaning out his well, was killed by foul air. He was lowered down into the well by one of the farm hands, and when near the bottom fell from the bucket. His employee, seeing what had occurred, called for assistance, and with the aid of a grappling hook drew the body to the surface.

Suicided in Jail.

SALEM, Mass., Oct. 9.—Thomas F. Carey, aged twenty-nine, who was awaiting trial on a charge of drunkenness, died in jail here Sunday from the effects of Paris green, which he had taken in the jail at Lynn prior to his removal to this city on Saturday. This is the third suicide of persons awaiting trial at this term of the superior court.

Fixed It Up.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The female employees of Cohnfeld & Company, feather merchants of Greene street, all returned to work today, the firm having agreed to pay the old rate of wages until a uniform scale is fixed by the trade. This will be done within two weeks.

Arrested for Wife Murder.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Oct. 9.—J. H. Nalor has been arrested at Clarendon for murdering his wife. She was found dead at the door of their cabin three days ago, and he asserted that she met her death by being dragged on the ground by a cow which she was leading.

Shot His Partner.

MORRIS, Ill., Oct. 9.—Just after midnight Sunday morning Tommy Reynolds was shot by Tim Kelly, his business partner, in the left shoulder, and dangerously wounded him. The men quarrelled over business affairs. Kelly has not yet been arrested.

But One Remedy for It.

CHARLESTON'S MAYOR TALKS CONCERNING YELLOW FEVER.

NON-INTERCOURSE WOULD CAUSE ITS EXTINCTION.

If the Present Communication Between Cuba and Florida is Continued Yellow Fever Will Be Common in the South. The Death Rate Very Small This Year. Saturday and Sunday at Jacksonville.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Ex-Mayor William A. Courtenay, of Charleston, S. C., known throughout the south as "the earthquake mayor," arrived in town a few days ago to attend the meeting of the Peabody trustees. He was seen at the Fifth Avenue hotel Saturday afternoon by a reporter, and was asked his views regarding the present yellow fever epidemic in the south. He said:

"It is a demonstrated fact that yellow fever is imported and it would seem that common sense would dictate an entire suspension of communication between the southern states and the home of the yellow fever in the tropics. This seems to have been deliberately set aside for a year or two past and the consequence is that with swift steamer communication, from Tampa to Key West and Havana, and as alleged, a contraband trade between the west coast of Florida and Cuba in full blast the disease has been imported into Florida.

"Nothing less than absolute non-intercourse for more than half the year during hot weather, will remedy this great evil. If the present business arrangements between Florida and Cuba are maintained, we shall soon have yellow fever common in the gulf states certainly, and perhaps in those further north. There seems to be local influences, corporate and private, in Florida which are dependent upon this communication with Cuba. It is a question for the country at large, and especially for the southern states, to decide whether the lives of their citizens are to be endangered and their immense business interests permanently injured to satisfy what seems to be the relatively small business in Florida.

"There can be no doubt that local health officers at Key West and Tampa, as well as the office of the United States marine hospital service, have acquiesced in this rapid communication with Cuba during the past two years. If anything is to be done in congress it should be done promptly and at once. A bill which involves waiting two years for a report had better be left alone. They have really escaped very lightly this year in Florida, the death rate not being more than one in eighth. In Memphis it was much heavier.

"The danger in the future is too great to admit of procrastination. The whole subject has been discussed elaborately by the highest scientific and medical authorities in the columns of the Charleston World during the past month, and all experience shown in these articles proves conclusively that yellow fever is a direct importation from the tropics."

At Jacksonville.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 9.—The yellow fever bulletin for Saturday gave eighty-one new cases and five deaths. On Sunday there were only thirty-three new cases, but nine deaths.

MR. AND MRS. CHASKA

Now Doing the Swell Act in Swift Bird's Camp.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 9.—A dime museum manager here says in regard to Chaska, the Sioux Indian, and his bride, Miss Cora Fellows: "They are back on a farm in Swift Bird's camp. We had to buy them the farm and make them a present of it. They didn't stock it, as was intended. We paid them $500 a week and expenses. They were engaged for ten weeks and got a tidy sum. After the second week Mrs. Chaska bought diamond ear-rings and paid $600 for them. This contented her for a while, but while in Chicago she wanted dresses, and they were the best they could buy. She bought an outfit, including seal sacque, although it was midsummer, that cost $1,200. Then Mrs. Chaska began to fit out Sammy. She went to a swell tailor and had three suits made for him, one of which is a full dress suit. Then she bought him a gold watch and chain. The watch was a horse tinner. She further adorned the redskin with a huge diamond ring and stud. Then heart of Cora seemed happy, but her purse was nearly empty. I don't believe she had $500 when they got back home."

OVER ONE HUNDRED INJURED.

A Floor Gives Way at a Cornerstone Laying at Reading, Pa.

READING, Pa., Oct. 9.—Over one hundred persons were injured Sunday afternoon during the ceremony of laying the cornerstone of St. Mary's Polish Catholic church in this city.

A crowd of 1,000 persons crowded a temporary floor laid on the joists and walls of the edifice, which had been carried up one story. The floor gave way.

Ran off With a Married Man.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 9.—Six Mile, a small suburban village, is all torn up and two families are plunged into the depths of grief over the elopement of Miss Annie Horn, a lovely young girl only sixteen years old, with one R. W. Eddy, a well known citizen and married man, with three children. Miss Horn is the daughter of T. T. Horn, one of the oldest citizens of the town. She left her father's house at midnight, and no trace of their whereabouts can be found.

Fed the Baby Poison.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 9.—At Milton, this county, Saturday, a three-year-old daughter of Solomon Heiser secured a bottle of carbolic acid and a teaspoon and began feeding it to the baby brother in the cradle. The screams of the baby attracted the mother, who was outside, and when she reached its side it was gasping for breath, and died in a few minutes.

A BALTIMORE & OHIO WRECK.

Three Killed and Six Wounded—Overwork the Cause.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The Cincinnati and St. Louis express on the Baltimore & Ohio, which left here at 10:45 p. m. Saturday, collided with an eastbound freight train near Dickerson. Three trainmen were killed and six injured. All of the passengers escaped unhurt.

The killed: William H. Wiley, a postal clerk of Fairmount, W. Va.

John Casey, postal clerk at Washington. George Riddenbaugh, brakeman, of Berlin, Md.

The injured: Engineer Joseph Jeffers, of the express train.

J. B. Virts, fireman of the freight. Thomas Landon, conductor of the express train.

A. C. Crook, postal clerk. L. W. Gordon, express messenger. A. M. Jackson, postal clerk.

The freight train men went to sleep, having been at work thirty-six hours, and made a fatal blunder by passing the place at which they should have switched off to permit the express to pass.

On the Pennsylvania.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 9.—The limited express on the Pennsylvania railroad, due in this city at 3:30 o'clock Sunday evening, while passing Walls station, fourteen miles east, dashed into the engine of an accommodation train standing on the siding, but which was not far enough from the switch to clear the main track. Both engines and the combination smoking car on the limited were badly wrecked. Three passengers, who were in the smoking car at the time, were painfully bruised, but not dangerously hurt. The engineer escaped by jumping. The names of the injured are: Theodore Wallace, of Chicago, shoulder bruised; Samuel Forbes, of Edinburgh, Scotland, ankle sprained; John L. Sackett, of New York, scalp wound.

THE BALTIMORE.

The New Steel Cruiser Launched in Philadelphia—Her Good Points.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—The cruiser Baltimore, the largest vessel yet constructed for the "new navy," was launched at Cramp's ship-yards Saturday. She is 335 feet long. The Baltimore conforms remarkably to the dimensions of the Chicago. Her engines are more powerful, being of the twin-screw triple-expansion top, designed for a speed of nineteen knots. There are few cruisers afloat that can be fairly reckoned as nineteen-knot vessels. She is built upon a model designed by White, now the chief constructor of the British navy, and will cost about $1,500,000. She will carry 550 tons of coal, and can remain at sea thirty-three days. The main battery of the Baltimore consists of four eight-inch guns and six six-inch guns.

Postoffice Robbers Plead Guilty.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Ky., Oct. 9.—Leonard Hunt, Jack Wilson and Richard Clarkson were jailed at this place to-day, and pleaded guilty to robbing the store and postoffice at Spearman, eight miles north of this place. The store was owned by William Williams.

Cutting Affray at Fort Wayne.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 9.—An altercation occurred Sunday morning between George Brassard, Harry Minnich and Ike Slater in a barber shop on Wells street. Slater left the shop to avoid trouble, and was followed by the other two. Slater claims he was attacked and knocked down. He then drew a knife and cut both of his assailants pretty badly, especially Minnich, who received a slash across the stomach ten inches long, causing the intestines to protrude. He is not expected to live. Slater was arrested, and is being held to await the result of Minnich's injuries.

Negro Desperado Shoots Three Men.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Oct. 9.—Jim Scott, a notorious negro desperado, and ex-convict, shot and probably fatally wounded three young white men named Joe Spencer, Pat Burns and Charles Floyd, last night, without the slightest provocation. The negro escaped to the woods, and a large body of citizens is scouring the country for him, armed with shotguns.

Mormon Petition for Their Property.

SALT LAKE, Oct. 9.—When the Territorial Supreme Court met Saturday the three trustees of the Mormon Church petitioned the court to compel the receiver to transfer to them the title to the Temple block, with the church building thereon, the Tithing Yard block and the Amelia palace and historian's office. The petition was taken under advisement.

Six Hundred Chinese Arrive.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—Near six hundred Chinese arrived yesterday by the Belgic from the Orient and the steamer Westminster from British Columbia. No effort was made to land them, but it is understood that a case to test the exclusion act will be made and presented to the United States courts to-day. The plea of being citizens will be presented by many of the coolies, who hope thereby to be enabled to remain in this country. The result of their efforts and the effect of their landing will probably determine whether or not the new law can be successfully evaded.

Death of a Prominent Spiritualist.

DELPHI, Ind., Oct. 9.—The death of Dr. E. W. H. Beck, an honored pioneer citizen of this place, occurred Saturday night after a lingering illness. Deceased was one of the most prominent citizens of northern Indiana. He was a Spiritualist, and in Spiritualistic circles his reputation is National. He has written much in his line.

Paris' Educated Beggar.

There is in Paris, a current story has it, an educated beggar in the person of a young man formerly a pupil of the Ecole Normale, whose modus operandi is as follows: He comes up to the terrace of a cafe, and addressing himself to the most intelligent looking man present, invites him to ask any historical question he can think of, any date of French history, from the earliest to the present time, saying, "I will answer at once." He generally fulfills his promise with remarkable alacrity, and with equal sagacity passes around the hat.—Chicago Herald.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
 Proprietors.

TUESDAY EVE., OCT. 9, 1888.

What's the matter with Sherman and Allison and Hawley and Hale and Cameron? "Nary" a speech have they made for Mr. Harrison.

REPRESENTATIVE BRECKINRIDGE says Kentucky will send a solid Democratic delegation to the Fifty-first Congress. The silver-tongued orator should not indulge in such talk as this. It has a tendency to make the Democrats overconfident. The party needs to be aroused. It will take work, hard work to win in this district.

The Covington correspondent of the Enquirer says the false-work on the new Huntington bridge over the Ohio river was completed Sunday. The iron-work will now be pushed along at a lively rate. The traveler is in good working order, and the protections for the false-work are complete, so that the work will not be interfered with.

We very much fear the Democrats of this Congressional district are entirely too confident for the good of the party. They ought to know that the Republicans are going to make a desperate effort to elect Mr. Barchette. They can be defeated, however, and will be, if the Democrats perfect their organization and work as they ought to do on election day.

JUDGE THURMAN has hopes of the Democrats carrying Michigan, Wisconsin, Nevada, and says the returns from Ohio will surprise the Republicans. The Buckeye State has gone Democratic on divers occasions in the past, and if she should happen to do it this time it would be the straw that would crush the Republican party out of sight.

HON. JOHN P. NEWMAN, of Newport, addressed the Democracy at the court house yesterday afternoon. An average crowd was present. Mr. Newman scored some good points in favor of the Democratic cause. He referred in strong language to a system of tariff taxation that enabled such men as Carnegie to become a millionaire in a year, while at the same time they oppressed their workmen and force them to accept reduced wages, and work at starvation rates.

It is certainly encouraging and very gratifying to Kentuckians to know that she surpassed all other Southern States in material industrial development during the first nine months of the present year. Over $121,000,000 in capital and stock was invested in new industrial enterprises or the enlargement of old ones. Of this amount $22,101,000 was invested in Kentucky, Alabama following with $19,939,000, Texas with $14,836,000, Georgia with $8,388,000, and the other Southern States showing smaller amounts.

Who is this fellow Carnegie just from a summer tour of Europe? Oh, he's Mr. Blaine's friend—he's that protected tariff baron who made $1,500,000 last year out of his big steel mills and then tried to compel his hands to accept a reduction of 10 per cent. in their wages. Yes, he's the very fellow. Is he a Republican? Of course he is. And he thinks a high tariff is just the thing for the American working people. It enables him to become a millionaire in one year, while it enables his employees to secure work at starvation wages.

Colored Voters.

Mr. Taylor, late Minister to Liberia, says that 240,000 colored men in the North will vote for Cleveland this year. The Age, of New York, has warned Republicans that a big part of the colored vote in that city will be cast for Cleveland and Thurman.

While in New York recently Mr. John M. Hunt, of the firm of Hunt & Son, says he saw fifteen hundred colored Democrats march through the streets with Cleveland and Thurman banners flying.

The Boston Stars.

The Boston Stars gave their first concert in Louisville, at McAuley's Theater last night, and it was one of the most thoroughly appreciated ever heard here. The programme was of a high order, and each number was rendered in a style and precision characteristic of the members of the company, each of whom is known and recognized in Louisville as a leader of his or her specialty. First comes Walter Emerson who, as a cornet virtuoso, stands unequalled. Madame Medora Henson-Emerson, with a remarkably sweet, sympathetic soprano voice, of wide and certain range, is the vocalist, and Mr. Rudolph King the accompanist and piano soloist, and Miss Nella Brown, who is greatly admired in the East, gives select readings and recitations, and is perhaps first of her line in the country.—Louisville Courier-Journal, February 27th, 1888.

The Stars will appear at the Opera house Oct. 16th and lovers of music can expect a rare treat. Reserved seat tickets can be had at Taylor's news depot.

Its Delicacy of Flavor and the efficacy of its action have rendered fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, immensely popular. It cleanses and tones up the clogged and feverish system, and dispels headaches, colds and fevers. For sale in 50 cent and $1 bottles.

Robert Moran, of Dallas, Texas, was circulating among his old friends here last week. Elder Cole, of Springdale, preached at the Christian Church Sunday, morning and night. What is the matter with the Lawrence Creek Bandana Club? Gentlemen, we would like to hear from you. One of the old bachelors of Charleston Bottom is to wed a prominent society belle of Russellville, O., this week. We offer congratulations ahead. The tobacco crop is about all cut. The present crop is the largest and finest raised here for years. The late cutting was slightly damaged by the frost.

MAYSBLICK.

The Christian Church in this place is now without preacher. Corn cutting is now the order of the day, though a good deal of the corn is yet too green. Bourbon Perry Jefferson, of cave notoriety, is visiting his old friends in this place and vicinity. Elder W. A. Gibson and family left us last week for Louisville, where they will locate for the present. The tobacco in this vicinity is very slightly injured by the late frosts, while in other localities close by it is almost, if not entirely, ruined. A good portion of it will not be cut. Wishberry Collins and his daughter, Mrs. Robert Owen, with her amiable daughter, Miss Manlie, who have been visiting their relative Mrs. J. A. Jackson for the past week, have returned to Bourbon County. Their home is near Kansas city, Mo. There is a move in the Christian Church in this place to raise a sufficient sum of money to erect a monument to the memory of Elder Walter Scott, whose remains are interred in our cemetery and are unmarked. Any one disposed to contribute send your amount to George Myall, Mayslick, Ky.

SHANNON.

N. & D. Watson have a house full of fall and winter goods. Miss Anna Newell, of Maysville, is visiting Miss Ollie Bland. Mr. John Caldwell has gone to Kansas to see after his crop interests in that state. Ben Wood and wife attended the fall sale of fine horses at Rolla Hart's, Poplar Plains, October 5th. Mrs. A. J. Styles brought many rare shells and Japanese trinkets home with her from the Pacific coast. Perry Jefferson, of Lexington, is here and is on the invalid list. Dr. Browning is prescribing for him. Miss Nancy Lee Bland has returned from Cincinnati after taking in the Centennial and Fall of Babylon. Mrs. Will D. Thackston has returned from a visit to relatives in Poplar Plains, much improved in health. Mrs. Newt Watson's baby, (a sweet little girl not yet a year), is holding daily matinees and has many visitors. Miss Josie Dwyer, of Covington, and Miss Emma Gordon, of Germantown, are visiting the family of Mr. Sam Proctor. Miss Em Lee Browning, of "The Oaks," and Miss Ebe Gayle, of Owenton, will be among the attractive girls at the Germantown fair this week. Our leading tobacco men, H. D. Watson, "Squire" Raymond, A. P. Gooding and Henry Thompson were in Glasgow, Ky., to assist in giving the old tobacco market a boom. Billy Dye has taken unto himself a second wife, gone to housekeeping and is as happy as a king. Miss Anna Corway, of Hooktown, Nicholas County, is the new lady in charge. BULLETIN congratulates. A Kenton County correspondent writing us says: "I am truly sorry to hear of the death of Tom Rees. He was one of the fairest and cleverest men in Mason. I saw him in a vision the night of his dissolution." Where are our girls?—Miss Miley Howe is teaching at Fairview, Miss Mary Arthur at Mayslick, Miss Maria Warder at Mayslick, Miss Em L. Browning at Athurana, Miss Ella Galbreath at West Liberty, and Mrs. Wright at Shannon. A correspondent at Independence, Mo., writes us: "I went to hear Rev. George O. Barnes preach the other night. He is the crasiest-looking man I ever saw. He preached that all will be saved, the good first and the wicked gradually and lastly." Miss Mary B. Caldwell gave her young lady and gentlemen friends a high tea on Thursday evening. The table was historical. The antique style was in vogue. Rev. Mr. Spears, of Mayslick, assisted Miss Rebecca Caldwell in arranging the banquetting hall and table. Mr. John Caldwell put on the young man and acted host to perfection.

Card of Thanks.

Editor Bulletin: Please permit me to express through your paper my gratitude to Messrs. Bramel, Carr & Co. for fifty bushels of the best coal which they kindly sent around to my house. May their shadow never grow less in this "cool-ed" world. W. S. PRIEST.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died, at the residence of his father, Mr. John McDonald, near the mouth of Cabin Creek, August 25, 1888, Mr. BROWDER DE WARE, McDonald, in the nineteenth year of his age. He was the youngest son of the family. He died of carcinoma of the kidney and bowels, after an illness of about ten weeks. Thus was carried away in the early years of his strength and usefulness an upright boy and a citizen held in high esteem by all who knew him. He was perfectly willing to be operated on, but his trouble was so very malignant in structure that it was useless to do so. From a boy he was esteemed for his strict conscientiousness and regard for truth by his parents. As far as we can see it looks as though his taking off was untimely. Yet the Savior knows best. If he is a loss to his companions who can estimate the loss to his dear old mother and father, who took such pride in their son, and for whom no doubt they had planned a course in life to make everything bright and cheerful. To within a short time of his death he was perfectly calm and easy, giving his spirit to the One that gave it. So let us extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family, and let us all live and die as he did, and try to meet him in that great beyond, where everything is bright and beautiful.

TO-DAY

OUR HOUSE STANDS PRE-EMINENTLY AT THE HEAD of the Clothing trade in the State of Kentucky. Glance at the throng in our store rooms as you pass along; that tells the story.

Indeed, we have in the past few days been compelled to apologize to many of our customers for the delay in getting them waited on, and again and again we thank them for the patience they exercise in waiting until we could give them proper attention. We are often asked how it is that we are always crowded with customers. This question is as easily answered by you as it is by us—WE STUDY THE INTEREST OF OUR PATRONS! We handle nothing but FIRST-CLASS GOODS in all the lines pertaining to our business. You buy of us with perfect confidence that you get just what you want. Thousands testify to this. No Clothing house in the State is as jealous of its reputation as ours. We are ever watchful that whatever you buy is the correct thing for you. In our Ready-Made department we show a greater variety of FINE TAILOR-MADE CLOTHING than you find most anywhere, whilst our Merchant Tailoring Department is known as THE MODEL. The number of orders we daily receive evidences that our work pleases. We are now in the midst of our Fall trade. Our stock, with the almost daily shipments we receive, is replete with everything you want. Our prices are lower than you find anywhere else, considering the standard of our goods. Truly yours,

Discontented Germans

THEY REALIZE WHAT THEY HAVE LOST IN FREDERICK'S DEATH.

EUROPE UNDER THE SHADOW OF A UNIVERSAL WAR CLOUD.

The Whitechapel Fiend Still at Large, and in Consequence the Reign of Terror Still Prevails—Even the Queen Criticized. Reported Poisoning of Thirteen of the Sultan's Wives—Foreign Notes.

BERLIN, Oct. 9.—The feeling that all Europe is on the eve of almost a universal war broods over the people. It is marked in Germany by a widespread discontent with the militarism of the empire and with the young emperor is a military man. There appears to nothing in Germany now but the army. The dissatisfaction finds more expression by reason of the publication of Frederick's diary, which presents the contrast between what they have and what they have lost in Unser Fritz.

It is everywhere conceived that war is being provided for, and that it is not a war that aims at securing any amelioration of the condition of the people, but rather to conserve empire and military rule. It is noted that William and Francis drink to the integrity of the military regimen, and not to the health of the people. The French journals think they have discovered a tacit alliance between the three emperors against England, whom Bismarck hates.

They affect to believe that Austria has been brought into an understanding to partition the Balkan states between them—Constantinople going to Russia, a large Aegean seaboard to Austria, while Germany, on the death of the present king of Holland, the last descendant of William the Silent, will be free to incorporate Holland and part of Belgium into the empire under the rule of the Belgian king. France is to be bought off with a slice of Belgium. The further plan is to unite the Russian and German fleets against England and oust her from her present colonial supremacy.

This plan, for a long time entertained by Bismarck, is supposed to account for Germany's great colonial enterprises of late. It is supposed that this is why William of late snubbed the Hungarian minister, Tizza. He, as representing Hungary, is vehemently opposed to blotting out Turkey and dividing the Balkan states with Russia. Indeed, the predominance which the scheme would give Germany and particularly Russia, is its weak feature. It is hardly possible that the Austro-Hungarian monarchy can be forced into the scheme by Germany. What is beyond question is the fact that some division of Europe is on the tapis.

Wholesale Arrests in London.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Saturday's Telegraph published two sketch portraits from descriptions of the man last seen in company of the woman named Strede, one of the victims of the Whitechapel murder fiend. The result has been the unceremonious arrest of every man bearing any resemblance to the pictures, and a great deal of discomfort has been caused by this new phase of police activity. Many of these arrests have been made by self-conducted detectives or ambitious vigilance committees.

Meanwhile another letter has been received, assumedly from the murder, Saturday evening, by the Central News, in which he promised to commit more murders but as yet none have been reported. As a consequence of the letter all the police were on duty, assisted by a large force of amateur detectives, who have made arrests without limit. The reign of terror still prevails.

The anger felt at the neglect of the government to offer a reward for the capture of the Whitechapel fiend is growing to an alarming extent among the residents of the East End. Sir Charles Warren's name is mentioned with scorn and imprecation, and the queen herself comes in for a share of the liberal abuse. The methods employed by the police in their vain efforts to capture the murderer are ridiculed and denounced as trifling and useless. Their clumsy efforts and wholesale arrests are exciting the East Enders to wrath, and instead of having a single criminal to find and deal with, it is feared that a very carnival of crime will be begun unless something is done to appease the desperate characters of this neighborhood.

A change is noticeable already, for the worse, and crimes such as wife beating, assaults and affrays with knives have increased within the last two weeks in the worst districts of the East End.

But what the police most fear is an open riot which will exceed in proportions, the Trafalgar square riots of last year. Whitechapel and the adjoining districts are the resorts of a large portion of London's floating population. They come and go irregularly. Criminals of all kinds have their hiding places here, and when their business in the country, of house-breaking and similar pursuits is dull, thither they flock. They are ready for almost any desperate action and can easily be incited to crimes of lawlessness. Unless the petition to the queen to offer a reward for the murderer's arrest, which the people of the East End have circulated, is successful and her majesty or the government offer a suitable reward and show more interest in the matter, a riot and a bloody one may be looked for.

From Over the Pacific.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—From advices by the steamer Belgic, which arrived Sunday, the following is gleaned:

Disastrous floods have befallen the province of Moukden, about three hundred and fifty miles northeast of Peking, bringing immediate death to hundreds of natives, utter annihilation to many homes, destruction to crops, and a prospect of general famine for the coming winter.

Cholera is still raging at Hong Kong, the daily average of new patients ranging from forty to fifty, most of whom die of the disease.

A storm on the 30th of August at Naga-gorie, in Japan, caused the following damage: Number of houses demolished or half destroyed, 3,000; vessels totally lost, 85; vessels wrecked, 500; number of persons wounded and receiving public assistance, 52,000.

The American yacht Coronet reached Yokohama September 17 on its voyage around the world. From this port the owner proposes to return to New York via Singapore, Bombay, Suez canal, Mediterranean sea and Liverpool.

The Situation in Ireland.

New York, Oct. 9.—A special from Dublin to the World says:

John Dillon, member of parliament, was unable to attend a demonstration held in Tipperary to which he had been invited Sunday, but sent a letter, in which he said: "Circumstances which I will not enter into at present have unhappily adied new courage to the camp of the evictors, and the rackrenting landlord who last spring were practically utterly beaten and disheartened, now seem to be inspired with new hopes. I have been able to ascertain since my release that an attack in force has been carried on on all the estates in Ireland, where the tenants were courageously resisting rackrenting and extermination, and at the same time time it is impossible for any one who has carefully watched the proceedings of the land commissioners to shut his eyes to the fact that the land courts are rapidly becoming simply a department of the machinery now in existence for the oppression of Irish tenants. Under these circumstances it seems to me that there is no hope for the Irish tenants except in some method which will convince the landlords that it will not pay to treat them in an insolent and unreasoning spirit. This winter is sure to be one of fierce struggles, and I desired extremely to make a personal appeal to the people of Tipperary to throw themselves in the movement with all their old vigor."

Demonstrations were held in numerous places throughout the country Sunday, and resolutions were passed strongly supporting the present movement.

Blood-Curdling Sensation.

New York, Oct. 9.—A story is cabled here for the use of the World and the Enquirer of Cincinnati, stating that the sublime sultan has been dishing out poisoned ice cream to some thirteen ladies of his harem, and so killed all of them, including "La Bella Prima Donna," Laura Schirmer, a Boston girl. They were all poisoned to make sure of her, because the sultan was provoked by the efforts of the American minister to release her from her captivity at the instance of her friends. It is a terrible secret which a Milanese paper is assumed to have revealed. It is a story that requires confirmation.

Awful Disaster in China.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—The steamer Belgic, which arrived Sunday from Hong Kong and Yokohama brings the news of the sweeping away of the whole of the new embankment of the Yellow river at Chang Chou. The building of the embankment was begun last autumn, and carried on at the cost of over $9,000,000. Of the 8,000 feet of the river wall that had been built not one inch remains.
